2. What made you decide the Maine Coon was the breed for you?

3. Do you have a color and/or sex preference? Explain why.

4. What type of personality are you looking for in a cat? Please list the top three qualities/characteristics you are looking for in your new pet.

5. Do you live in an apartment, house, condo, townhouse, etc.? If renting, are you allowed to have pets?

6. Members of the household and ages of any resident children:

7. Is everyone in the family supportive of adding a cat to the household?

8. Who will be responsible for the primary care of this kitten/cat?

9. How and what do you plan on feeding this kitten/cat?

10. Are you willing to feed wet/raw food on a daily basis?

11. Does anyone in your family have a cat allergy?

12. Current pets, type and ages:

13. Regarding any cats you have now/have had in the past, are/were they indoors only, indoor/outdoor, or outdoors only?

14. If you have a dog, how is its temperament around kittens/cats?

15. Please tell us about any previous pets you may have and what happened to them, if deceased, please explain:

16. Name and phone number of vet you currently use, used to use, or plan to use.

17. Do you travel often? What do you usually do with your pets when you go out of town?

18. Are you aware that the Maine Coon is a long-haired breed and may require regular grooming to prevent mats and hairballs?

19. What would you do if your cat misbehaves? How do you plan to discipline/train your cat?

It may take several weeks for your kitten to adjust to its new home; I will be happy to provide any assistance with my personal advice (based on my own experiences) for that transition period.

Please give me any additional information that will help me, to help you, find the right pet.

The following are NOT allowed in regards to Kittens/Cats from Wind River Coons Cattery:

- Kittens/Cats from my cattery are not allowed to be declawed
- Being outside without the owner/adult supervisor, unless they are in an outdoor enclosure
- Being rehomed without breeder knowledge.
- Being given to a lab.
- Being abandoned/given to a shelter.

If at ANY point in time you realize you cannot keep a kitten/cat from our cattery. Let me know.

I will help in your situation
